MESCÀ

The magnificent Castel Del Monte built by Federico II rises from the magical landscape of Apulia and in 1996 was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Mescà is the wine for special occasions, for dinners with friends when there is an elaborate dish which cries out for a suitable accompaniment. Elegant, complex and potent, Mescà offers us the fragrance of cinnamon, tobacco, pepper and vanilla given by cask ageing, ending with overtones of hay and sweet nuances of jam.

It is soft and warm on the palate with a persistent finish of ripe fruit and toasted, balsamic notes.

A wine full of surprises.
